

Grade Six: Midterm

Write the Ten Commandments IN NUMERICAL ORDER. (Counts 20 Points)

WORD BANK:

CONSCIENCE TEN COMMANDMENTS FREE WILL SIN STEALING
HERESY IMPIETY FRIDAYS EASTER CHRISTMAS ABORTION
EUTHANASIA SCANDAL CHASTITY ENVY RASH JUDGEMENT

1. Judging another person's character based on very flimsy evidence is _____.
2. Being jealous or resentful of another's possessions or good fortune is _____.
3. God gave each person the ability to judge whether something is right or wrong. We call the ability our _____.
4. A person chooses not to take revenge when someone strikes him. This is an example of _____.
5. When we disregard or break God's laws, we _____.
6. God gave us the _____ to teach and guide us.
7. Willful denial of a truth of our faith is _____.
8. Lack of proper respect for God is _____.
9. The Church requires us to abstain from eating meat on _____ during Lent.
10. During Advent, we prepare for _____ and during Lent, we prepare for _____.
11. If we do not repay what people let us borrow we are _____.
12. The intentional taking of the life of a child before it is born is _____.
13. The killing of another person so that he or she will not have to suffer (sometimes called "mercy killing") is called _____.
14. The proper use of one's sexual powers is called _____.
15. Leading others into sin by one's actions is called _____.

Grade Six Midterm – Part II

Write in the correct missing words from the word bank.

WORD BANK:

Likeness Family Soul Marriage Body Free Will Respect Married
Enemies Innocent Image Instinct Sunday Fifth

1. The Sixth and Ninth Commandments are especially concerned with things that belong to _____ life and the _____.
2. All of us were made in the _____ and _____ of God.
3. A human being is composed of _____ and _____.
4. The Fifth Commandment makes it clear that it is wrong to take _____ human life.
5. _____ is the day we must dedicate to God.
6. Learning to forgive your _____ will help you to become more like Jesus.
7. Reproduction in human beings is governed by _____, not by _____ as in the case of animals.
8. God has designed human sexuality to be enjoyed only in _____.
9. The Fourth Commandment tells us that we must honor, love, and _____ our parents.
10. The _____ Commandment also requires that we take care of our bodies and not abuse drugs or alcohol.

TRUE AND FALSE

Write F for a False Statement or T for a True Statement.

- _____ 1. There is such a thing as just or righteous anger.
- _____ 2. It is wrong not to care whether our actions injure others.
- _____ 3. All killing is wrong and never allowable no matter what the reason.

- _____ 4. I must feel love for my enemies if I want to obey Jesus' command to "love your neighbor as yourself".
- _____ 5. If people in authority command us to violate God's Law, we must obey God rather than those people.
- _____ 6. We do not have to forgive those who ask us for forgiveness.
- _____ 7. Making restitution is part of being forgiven for sinning against the Seventh Commandment.
- _____ 8. It's all right to use stolen property as long as you were not the one who stole it.
- _____ 9. Copying another's homework and not paying back one's debts fully are sins against the Eighth Commandment.
- _____ 10. Envy and greed are sins against the Tenth Commandment.